SMART is temporarily cancelling weekend train service

Petaluma, CA— In response to the novel coronavirus (COVID-19) situation and shelter in place orders for seven of the nine Bay Area counties, the Sonoma-Marín Area Rail Transit (SMART) District is temporarily cancelling weekend train service through Sunday, April 5, 2020.

At this time, there is no change to weekday train service. SMART is monitoring this dynamic situation and will make adjustments as necessary, on a day-to-day basis.

SMART is committed to providing an essential public transit service for the North Bay, with the health and safety of the community and SMART staff as our top priority.
